From the Director

Welcome! Thank you so much for being here with us to-night!

Over the summer I decided to create a program that featured American composers, arrangers and genres. It was so much fun putting together a long list of pieces and narrowing it down to the selections you'll hear to-night!

Leonard Bernstein's "Take Care of This House" is from his Broadway musical "1600 Pennsylvania Avenue" and the "house" he refers to is The White House. While the show closed after just six performances, this beautiful piece is timely in its message. The lyrics could just as easily apply to a family home or house of worship. "Make the floor of faith, Make the walls of truth, Put a roof of peace above. Only build my house of love."

"Sure on This Shining Night" is one of Samuel Barber's most famous art songs. The choral arrangement is challenging and the melody and contemporary harmonies haunting and lovely.

I was first introduced to Ives' "The Circus Band" during my college days while singing in the Westminster Choir. It is a quirky piece that captures Ives' fond childhood memories of the circus coming to town and the parade of performers marching down Main Street.

It is said he had an off-beat sense of humor and that, combined with the language of the time, accounts for lines like, "Where is that clown, that funny gink?" (fool), "Last year he winked at me I think. Can he have died?" (Yikes! Ives' dark humor!), "Can that 'rot'!" (that would be bad). Sounds a lot better when we don't interpret the words literally!

Grammy Award winning composer and conductor Erik Whitacre is one of the most well-known contemporary American musicians of our time. His compositions are beautiful, thoughtful and, at times, complex. "Sing Gently" was composed during the Covid-19 pandemic and first performed virtually by 17,572 people from 129 countries. Whitacre knew this would be a time of suffering and great division. He wanted to compose a song that would bring comfort and that would make people feel connected in a time of intense disconnection. To date he has brought together people from 145 countries in multiple virtual performances!

"Shenandoah" is the quintessential American folksong dating back to the early 19th Century. The song's origins are debated. Some say it's simply about a river while others believe its inspiration was a love story between the daughter of a Native American Chief named "Shenandoah" and a fur trader. Regardless of the meaning, it is simply lovely!

"Bright Morning Stars" is an Appalachian folksong also made popular in the 19th Century. Bright morning stars were thought to be a harbinger of hope and salvation.

I simply could not do a concert honoring American composers and arrangers and not include Moses Hogan! Moses Hogan is known for his exciting arrangements of the old traditional spirituals. He is a favorite among choristers everywhere! This arrangement of "Joshua Fought The Battle" is a great example of his rhythmic vocal lines, vocal layering and call and response.

Elaine Hagenberg writes some of the most exquisite choral music I have ever heard. She is truly a favorite of mine! In her piece "By Night" she takes Harriet Prescott Spotfford's poem which depicts a young woman who discovers a world of thrilling beauty when she ventures beyond her familiar walls and makes it come to life with a soaring accompaniment.

At this point in the program we take a journey into the jazz genre. "Do Nothing Till You Hear From Me" is arranged by Darmon Meader, leader of the world famous New York Voices followed by Duke Ellington's "Duke's Place" and Ira Gershwin's "I've Got a Crush On You". Jazz harmony utilizes 7th chords, added 9th, 11th and 13ths not typically found in classical music. At times we stray from familiar lyrics to non-sensical syllables called "scat singing". While challenging to master, these pieces take us back in time and are so fun to sing.

As I compiled my list of songs, I realized that the concert might go on for hours or even days if we continued to work our way beyond the jazz era; that would have to wait until the next concert. However, once I discovered this Adam Podd arrangement of "The Times They Are A-Changin'" I felt I had to include it. The arranger stated that he set out to reimagine this song so it might lend itself to a church service or concert setting where it might not otherwise fit saying "Bob Dylan is among the best in the world and this would be the perfect text for any service or concert with themes of social justice." He hoped the re-harmonization and contrasting musical style to the original would bring new attention and poignancy to these well-known words.

We end our concert with a gospel style piece entitled "I Will Sing". Gospel is at the heart of all American music since its evolution. More importantly, this piece doesn't just fit the theme of this concert. This song stands as an anthem to all of us who love to sing.

I will sing, forevermore!

I will sing with all my heart and my soul!

I have decided that with this one life I will sing!

Take Care Of This House/My House

Will you build me a house
A house that really will be mine
Then let me give you my design
A simple scheme of
The house I dream of

Build my house of wood,
Build my house of stone,
Build my house of brick and mortar

Make the ceiling strong
Strong against the storm
Shelter when the days grow shorter

But build my house of love
And paint my house with trusting
And warm it with the warmth of your heart

Make the floor of faith,
Make the walls of truth
Put a roof of peace above

Only build my house of love, love,
love

Take care of this house
Keep it from harm
If bandits break in sound the alarm
Care for this house
Shine it by hand
And keep it so clean
The glow can be seen all over the land.

Be careful at night,
Check all the doors,
If someone makes off with a dream
The dream will be yours.

TAKE CARE OF THIS HOUSE

Be always on call
Care for this house,
It's the hope of us all.

But build my house of love
And paint my house with trusting
And warm it with the warmth of
your heart

Make the floor of faith,
Make the walls of truth
Put a roof of peace above

Only build my house of love, love,
love

Sure On This Shining Night

Sure on this shining night
Of starmade shadows round,
Kindness must watch for me
This side the ground.

The late year lies down the north.
All is healed, all is health.
High summer holds the earth.
Hearts all whole.

Sure on this shining night
I weep for wonder
Wandering far alone
Of shadows on the stars.
On this shining night.

The Circus Band

All summer long we boys dreamed 'bout circus joys!
Down Main Street comes the band,
Oh! "Ain't it a grand and glorious noise!"

Horses are prancing, knights advancing
Helmets gleaming, pennants streaming,
Cleopatra's on her throne!
That golden hair is all her own.

The Circus Band (cont'd)

Where is the lady all in pink?
Last year she waved to me I think,
Can she have died? Can! that! rot!
She is passing but she sees me not.

Where is the clown, that funny gink?
Last year hew inked at me I think.
Can he have died? Can! that! rot!
He's still a winkin' but he sees me not. (not)

Bright Morning Stars

Bright morning stars are rising
Bright morning stars are rising
Bright morning stars are rising
Day is breaking in my soul

Oh, where are our dear fathers?
Oh, where are our dear fathers?
They are down in the valley a-praying
Day is breaking in my soul

Oh, where are our dear mothers?
Oh, where are our dear mothers?
They are gone to heaven a-shouting
Day is breaking in my soul

Bright morning stars are rising
Bright morning stars are rising
Bright morning stars are rising
Day is breaking in my soul

Shenandoah

Oh, Shenandoah, I long to see you
And hear your rolling river
Oh, Shenandoah, I long to see you
'Way, we're bound away
Across the wide Missouri.

I long to see your smiling valley
And hear your rolling river
I long to see your smiling valley
'Way, we're bound away
Across the wide Missouri.

'Tis seven long years since last I've seen you
And hear your rolling river
'Tis seven long years since last I've seen you
'Way, we're bound away
Across the wide Missouri.

Oh, Shenandoah, I long to see you
And hear your rolling river
Oh, Shenandoah, I long to see you
'Way, we're bound away
Across the wide Missouri.

Oh, Shenandoah
Oh, Shenandoah
Oh, Shenandoah

The Battle Of Jericho

Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho

[Joshua fit the Battle of Jericho, Jericho, Jericho
Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua,
the Battle

Joshua fit the Battle of Jericho, and the walls come tumbling down
Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho
(Repeat)]

Talk about your kings of Gideon
Go on you can talk about

Talk about your men of Saul
Go on, yes, you can talk about him

But none like good old Joshua at the Battle of Jericho
That morning

Joshua fit the Battle of Jericho, Jericho, Jericho
Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua,
the Battle

Joshua fit the Battle of Jericho, and the walls come tumbling down
Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle, Joshua, the Battle
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho

The Battle Of Jericho (cont'd)

Right up to the walls of Jericho
Jericho

He marched with spear in hand
Blow that horn, Joshua

"Go blow that ramhorn!" Joshua cried
'Cause the battle am in my hand
God almighty then the

Battle, Battle, oh Lord, yes, oh, the Battle
Lamb, ram, sheephorn, begin to blow

Battle, Battle, oh Lord, yes, oh, the Battle
and the trumpet begins to sound

Battle, Battle, oh Lord, yes, SHOUT!
Joshua commanded the children to shout

And the walls come a tumblin' down
Oh Lord, you know that

[Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho Joshua, Battle he fought the
Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Jericho Battle, Battle he fought the Joshua fit the Battle, yes, the Battle of Battle, Battle
Jericho
The walls come a tumblin' down
Oh Lord, you know that]
(Repeat)

Jericho, the walls come tum-ba-lin' down

By Night

Deep in the tarn the mountain
A mighty phantom gleamed,

She leaned out into the midnight,
And the summer wind went by,
The scent of the rose on its silken wing
And a song its sigh
(Vocalizations) And a song its sigh

And, in depths below, the waters
Answered some mystic height,
As a star stooped out of the depths above
With its lance of light.

(Vocalizations)

And she thought, in the dark and the fragrance,
How vast was the wonder wrought
If the sweet world were but the beauty born
In its Maker's thought.

If the sweet world were but the beauty born
In its Maker's thought. (Vocalizations)

A mighty phantom gleamed,

Do Nothin' Till You Hear From Me

Do nothing till you hear from me
Pay no attention to what's said
Why people tear the seam of anyone's dream
Is over my head.

Do Nothin' Till You Hear From Me (cont'd)

Do nothing till you hear from me
At least consider our romance
If you should take the word of others you've heard
I haven't a chance

True I've been seen with someone new
But does that mean that I'm untrue?
When we're apart the words in my heart
Reveal how I feel about you.

Some kiss may cloud my memory
And other arms may hold a thrill
But please do nothing till you hear from me
And you never will.

Oh, don't you do nothin'
Pay no attention to the stories
So I've seen another guy or two Don't mean I'm not in love with you
Why people tear the seams of anyone's dream
The reason is over my head.

Don't you do a think until you hear it from me
Please just consider what a dance our romance has been I'd certainly do it again
If you should take the word of others you've heard
I haven't got a chance

True I've been seen with someone new
But does that mean that now my love's untrue?
When we're apart
The words in my heart
Reveal just how i feel about you

Do Nothin' Till You Hear From Me (cont'd)

Some kiss may cloud my memory
And other arms may hold a thrill
But baby do nothing till you hear it from me
Oh just do nothin'

Won't you just wait and see
Cuz baby, oh no
You never will
You never will
You never will
Oh oh no

You never will

Duke's Place

Baby, take me down to Duke's Place
Wildest box in town is Duke's Place
Love that piano sound in Duke's Place

Saxes do their tricks in Duke's Place
Fellas swing their chicks in Duke's Place
Come on, get your kicks in Duke's Place

By the time you count to four, you'll hear that band begin to roar
It will make your spirit soar, so baby let's get out on the floor
They'll be pumpin', we'll be jumpin'
Baby let's dance

(Add second time) For the hippest sounds in town now
And you want to party down now
Head on down to Duke's and lose your frown now
Come on, baby

(Add third time) Bah dah dot, doot dot doot dot dah dot dot
Oh, buh dah dot, doot dot doot dot dah dot dot
Well, bah, bah dah, doot dot doot dot dah dot dot
Shoo-bee doo-bop! (Repeat with all)

Baby, take me down to Duke's Place
Wildest box in town is Duke's Place
Love that piano sound in Duke's Place

If you've never been to Duke's Place
Take your tootsies into Duke's Place
Life is in a spin in Duke's Place

The rhythm will be right
We'll dance and dance all through the night
So, baby, let's head down to Duke's Place!

Bah doot doo-lya doo dot dot!

I've Got a Crush on You

I've got a crush on you, Sweetie pie.
All the day and night-time, hear me sigh
I never had the least notion
That I could fall with so much emotion

Could you coo?
Could you care
For a cunning cottage we could share?
The world will pardon my mush
'Cause I've got a crush, my baby, on you

I've Got a Crush on You (cont'd)

Could you coo?
Could you care
For a cunning cottage we could share?
The world will pardon my mush,
'Cause I have got a crush, my baby, on you.
I've got a crush on you.

The Times, They are a Changin'

Come gather 'round people
Wherever you roam
And admit that the waters
Around you have grown
And accept it that soon
You'll be drenched to the bone
If your time to you is worth savin'
Then you better start swimmin' or you'll sink like a stone
For the times they are a-changin'

Come mothers and fathers
Throughout the land
And don't criticize
What you can't understand
Your sons and your daughters
Are beyond your command
Your old road is rapidly agin'
Please get out of the new one if you can't lend your hand
For the times they are a-changin'

The Times, They are a Changin' (cont'd)

The line it is drawn
The curse it is cast
The slow one now
Will later be fast
As the present now
Will later be past
The order is rapidly fadin'
And the first one now will later be last
For the times they are a-changin'

I Will Sing

We've all been given our little corner of space and time
With the permission to do with it as we see fit for a while
So begs the question,
What will I do with the portion given to me?
The one possession, so pure and precious.
Darkness and fear abound,
This song keeps calling out
From deep within me.

With all of my soul, I will sing
My heart ever steadfast, this melody will bring
It may or may not resonate, but here's the thing:
Even so, oh even so,
With all of my soul, I will sing
I will sing

I Will Sing (cont'd)

It's not that easy
Great are the doubts from within and without
They won't defeat me
Not if I'm completely
Standing on higher ground
Confident in the sound
That lives with me

With all of my soul, I will sing
My heart ever steadfast, this melody will bring
It may or may not resonate, but here's the thing:
Even so, oh even so,
With all of my soul, I will sing
I will sing

I will sing forever more
I will sing with all my heart and my soul
I have decided that with this one life, I will sing, I will sing
(repeats)

I will sing!
I will sing!
I will sing!
With all of my soul
(repeats)

We will sing with all our souls, we will sing with all our hearts!
We will sing forever more,
so we're just getting started
(repeats)

I will sing!
I will sing!
With all of my soul
I will sing!
I will sing!

There really is no mincing words; we live in turbulent and uncertain times. Coupled with a nearly constant stream of violence and vitriolic rhetoric, just getting by seems increasingly a daunting endeavor.

Music is so much more than an art form set aside for our entertainment. Much of our own musical styles and traditions were born of trial and tribulation. As much as it was then, it is still a medium through which we relate to and channel our emotions, conveyed all through the sounds we make and the words we sing.

Now, more than in recent memory, do we not only need a constructive means of conveying our strife, but moreso, a way of drawing inspiration; a hope that despite how things seem now, we can still strive to be better, for ours and our posterity.

This ensemble might very well be the best example of drawing strength and inspiration from our own ups and downs, and I've never been happier or more proud to be both a member of, and have the opportunity to serve a more awesome, if not eclectic, group of people.

Thank you all, and it will always be my continued privilege working with all of you.
